Conversations with My Daughter Drinking wine when you're sixteen...

Sunday June 6th, 2010

T: Seven years from now when I am sixteen, you and I will travel to Holland and you will buy me a drink!

Dad: You mean Netherlands!

T: No! I mean Holland.

Dad: Did you know we have Holland in the States?

T: Please don't change the subject – Dad!

Dad: Really; there's Holland, Michigan.

T: Will you?

Dad: I, sure, will. What would you drink as your first drink when you turn sixteen?

T: A glass of Chianti Stracali.

Dad: Chianti?

Dad: Stracali?

T: Yes! Chianti Stracali; that would be to your honor.

Dad: I am honored, of course! But, I would imagine I'd buy my daughter – for her first glass of wine – a better quality wine.

T: I think I'd rather have a glass of Chianti.

Dad: It's a deal. Netherlands, May of 2017...

Dad: But, remember when we return to the States, you have to wait 5 years before you can have a glass of wine.

T: No problem, dad. Or we can go to Europe in the mean time.
